During the summer months, the Park holds monthly member weekends, with a workbee on Saturday. Members who are able to participate are encouraged to attend one of these weekends each year. Member weekends are an opportunity for members to get together socially, and to contribute to the care and maintenance of Mesaba Park. Those who are unable to attend a workbee once a year are cordially invited to make a financial contribution, in lieu of participating.

Mesaba Co-op Park By-laws of the Association Article III
